A TREMENDOUS NUMBER of people have played a role in bringing Outwitting the Devil to print after it spent more than seventy years in hiding.

The Napoleon Hill Foundation deeply appreciates the family of Dr. Napoleon Hill, who have kept his legacy alive. Dr. Charlie Johnson, Hill's nephew, who had custody of the controversial manuscript, recognized the power and relevance of its message and recently gave the manuscript to the Napoleon Hill Foundation so it could be published.

Many thanks to Sharon Lechter and her deep passion for preserving and promoting Hill's legacy. In her comments throughout the book, Sharon has used her talents and energy to help readers appreciate and benefit from this timely message.

Sharon joins us in thanking the admirers of Napoleon Hill all over the world who help us spread Hill's wisdom—teachers and mentors, motivational speakers and college professors, successful business leaders and budding entrepreneurs. You are living testaments to the continued importance of Hill's work. Little wonder that Hill was often introduced as Miracle Maker and Maker of Millionaires during the many years of his speaking tours.

We thank the entire team at Sterling Publishing for their dedication and expertise, most notably Marcus Leaver, Jason Prince, Michael Fragnito, and Kate Zimmermann. On a more personal note, we thank our teams at The Napoleon Hill Foundation and Pay Your Family First for their never-ending guidance and support . . . Robert T. Johnson Jr., Michael Lechter, Annedia Sturgill, Phillip Lechter, Kevin Stock, Angela Totman, and Kristin Thomas. In addition, we appreciate the encouragement and assistance from Steve Riggio, Greg Reid, Joe McNeely, Greg Tobin, and Cevin Bryerman.

On behalf of Napoleon Hill, whose journey began over a century ago and whose wisdom has brought hope and encouragement to millions of people around the globe, we thank you!
